TAKING THE DEAD FROM RUINS OF THE LOS ANGELES TIMES BUILDING

Clue Has Been Obtained Which May Lead to the Discovery of the Assassins—Nitro-
Glycerine Was Shipped From Powder
Works Near San Francisco—
Heavy Rewards Offered

Los Angeles, Oct. 3.—Stirred by the fact that the bomb explosion, which wrecked the Times plant and killed twenty-one men, and the subsequent attempted dynamite outrages, has created a mystery which the police authorities are wrestling with, an ordinance, which authorized the immediate appointment of forty additional patrolmen, ten sergeants and one lieutenant, was issued today. The men will be used to hunt down and imprison or drive out of the city men who have been known to express commendation of acts of violence and others who have been in trouble with the police department since the labor troubles began in Los Angeles several months ago.

A proposal was also discussed to raise the city's reward for the detection of the bomb conspirators from $10,000 to $25,000.

It was determined to make the reward $10,000 for the detection of each conspirator.

The city's reward was augmented today by an offer from the county board of supervisors of $50,000 to $100,000.

The amount will be fixed at a meeting of the supervisors later today. It was the intention of the county officials to make the county offer a reward equal to that of the city. Hence it is probably will be $100,000 for each dynamite convict.

Scientific men are now in the city all booked as dynamite suspects. However, the best clue so far obtained came from the offices of the Giant Powder company in San Francisco, where it is said that men named Bryson and Morris and another man purchased 500 pounds of explosives.

Chief of Police Galloway and all his subordinates maintain silence regarding this clue, but it is regarded as so important that men from the local detective bureau, accompanied by an attorney, left for San Francisco last night to aid in the hunt for the three men who are said to have come ashore aboard a boat with the explosive.

Mayor Alexander appointed a committee of seven men today to receive contributions for the relief of the families of the dead employees of the Times. The appointment was authorized by a resolution adopted by the council.

Tracing the Murderers.
San Francisco, Oct. 3.—Bruce McCaul, chief invoice clerk of the Giant Powder company, consolidated, said today that he could identify the three men who purchased 500 pounds of gelatine dynamite from his company on September 23rd.

The man who paid for the dynamite at the company's office in San Francisco gave the name of A. J. Bryson, and, according to McCaul, his description tallies with that of the man who gave the name of Leonard at the powder works when he called for the explosive.

Bryson, on his visits to the local office of the company, was accompanied by a person giving his name as William Morris and an unidentified companion.

McCaul said today that the men impressed him by the speech and clothing as being college bred. Bryson wanted 85 per cent dynamite, saying he would use it to clear his ranch near Auburn, California.

McCaul said that the men acted strangely, but he did not consider it unusual that they should be purchasing dynamite as they showed considerable knowledge of explosives.

MORE BODIES ARE THERE.
Los Angeles, Oct. 3.—Pinned down by tons of twisted steel girders, a number of bodies were reported found early today by the workmen engaged in removing the debris from the basement of the wrecked Times building.

The situation was found to be such this morning that it was impossible to make any progress in recovering the bodies, and a steel crane will first have to be placed in order to lift the heavy material away.

It is believed that further investigations will bear out the theory of a room who, in making his escape the morning of the disaster, fell down the elevator shaft and got out only after having been severely burned. Mr. Crabb said there were undoubtedly a number of bodies at the bottom of "altogether too rash," to claim constitutional right.

"Thirty-nine years ago," according to his statement, "a decree was issued in Japan promising the nation to open a diet after nine years. Yet over twenty years were spent for various arrangements before parliament convened. In China not more than three years have passed since the edict promising a diet was issued. The constitutions of various countries were investigated, provincial assemblies opened and the council of administration affairs is going to be organized, but the national condition hardly warrant the empire to possess a parliament instantly. In China the central government is singularly weak owing to the constant friction between Chinese and Manchus concerning the Manchou government, imperfection of communication and difference of dialects and it is best for China to develop the provincial assemblies cultivate political ideas among the nation and gradually move toward the desired goal."

Good Clue Obtained.
San Francisco, Oct. 3.—The theory advanced by the Los Angeles police, that the explosive used to blow up the Times building was purchased from the Giant Powder works at Giant Cal., has been strengthened by the investigations conducted yesterday.

The strongest document offered in corroboration is in regard to the dynamite found at the residence of F. J. Zeehandelaar in Los Angeles, which bore the label:

"50 per cent gelatine, Giant Powder company, Giant, Cal., Sept. 20."

Frank Rollar, superintendent of the Giant works, has identified the dynamite by a telegraphic description. He said last night:

"The only 50 per cent gelatine dynamite we have manufactured in several months was made about September 20, on an order from our San Francisco office, to be delivered to the launch Peerless. It was a special order for 500 pounds and was stamped with our label in the same manner as the dynamite found by the Los Angeles police was labeled. Three men carried on the transaction at our office in San Francisco."

Five Men in the Crime.
Los Angeles, Oct. 3.—Chief of Detectives Flannery today photographed every twisted piece of steel brought from the wreckage of the Times building with the purpose of showing the photographs to experts on explosives and detecting, if possible, the kind of explosive used in blowing up the plant.

It is doubted if the bodies of any more victims will be recovered as it is believed they were consumed by the flames.

The police believe that five men were concerned in placing the bomb that wrecked the Times building and in constructing the time bomb found under the Zeehandelaar home and the infernal machine found at the residence of General Otis. According to detectives, five men were seen loitering near the home of Zeehandelaar, Friday afternoon. Two men, it is alleged, appeared and casually inspected the premises. Later they were joined by three others and the five held a short conversation and left, going in different directions.

A person living in the neighborhood is said to have noticed the men and later, when the bomb was found, notified the officers.

It is understood the police have a fair description of the men and every effort is being made to trace their movements from the Zeehandelaar home Friday afternoon.

It is believed that the men planted the explosives at the Times office and at General Otis' home and at Mr. Zeehandelaar's residence within a period of one hour Friday night.

The entire police force is working twelve hours a day and will be working on this schedule until conditions become normal.

Patrolmen and men are kept in reserve at the Central police station and two motor cycle officers are held on duty to answer emergency calls. Everything is being done to maintain order and protect property.

General Otis again inspected the Times building today. He was accompanied by two officers in plain clothes.

CHINA UNFIT TO HAVE PARLIAMENT
Washington, Oct. 3.—Should anyone attempt to press the Chinese government hereafter for immediate opening of parliament, the authorities there should deal with him vigorously, declares Count Okuma, the former Japanese premier, in a recent statement which he made to the Chinese press.

Count Okuma referred to the Chinese prince regent's recent refusal to grant a parliament as prayed for during the turbulent times last summer. Count Okuma, who has closely watched the situation in China, says he doubts whether that country will be in a fit condition to have a national assembly in nine years hence, at the present rate of progress; that in its present unprepared state it is the terms of said agreement when requested to, it shall be regarded and held that the said Fletcher is damaged to the extent of $5,000, which the said agrees to pay."

Section four provides that if an accident injury shall incapacitate a player for fifteen days his employer may thereupon abruptly terminate the whole contract. Section 8 provides for the termination of the contract by the employer giving the player ten days written notice.

Chicago, Oct. 3.—Curiosity on the part of James Stahl, a farmhand, 39 years old, to find out what were the component parts of an automobile, led to his death yesterday, when the object of his curiosity ran him down and killed him.

The automobile was left standing in the road by a party seeking mushrooms in the woods nearby.

Stahl inspected the numerous levers and then stepped to the front of it and turned the steering crank. The heavy machine gave down and crushed him before he could step aside. It then ran down a steep hill.

The occupants of the machine, hearing the cries of the dying man, rushed to the road to find their machine a wreck and Stahl dead.

"I am prouder of the Cubs than I ever have been in my life. They have beaten all records for overcoming obstacles. Never in the history of baseball did a team win out under such a heavy handicap of sickness and injuries."

"Our regular team has been available only at infrequent intervals. But they have had more than done their duty. But for Archer, Zimmerman, Kane and Beaumont we wouldn't be celebrating. I am proud of every one of them and I wouldn't trade my substitutes for the regulars on any other club. While the injury to John Evers is a blow, we have been receiving since the beginning of the season and we can't quit and give up hope of landing the world's championship just because he is out. Zimmerman will play second base in the big series and, mark my word, he will acquire himself well."

THIRD MAJOR LEAGUE CONTRACTS MADE PUBLIC
Cincinnati, Oct. 3.—A copy of Daniel A. Fletcher's contract for the third major league, which he announced is ready for next spring's series, was given out yesterday.

The contract provides a bonus of $10,000 to certain players and also provides that, if the players do not report to their teams as per contract, they must lose $5,000 to Fletcher.

The contract calls for the players' services from February 10, 1911, to November 15, 1915. It promises that Fletcher shall deliver to the players a contract with his league before February 10, 1911, in return for which promise they give him an option on their services.

The contract says the season is to open April 10, and close October 10. At the time of the delivery of the contract Fletcher agrees to pay his players the bonus sum of their wages, which sum he specifies to be from $10,000 to $20,000. The players promise in writing that they will enter no league or play ball with unauthorized club on or before February 10, 1911.

Then comes this clause: "And he further agrees that if he fails to sign the above set forth contract at the time it and the said $10,000 are tendered to him or shall fail or refuse to play ball according to

SLUMS OF NEW YORK

Are a Paradise Compared With the Dark Alleys of London

New York, Oct. 1.—The slums of New York, a paradise compared to the slums of London, according to the Rev. Bernard Vaughan, a prominent English Jesuit preacher, who took a prominent part in the deliberations of the recent Eucharistic congress at Montreal, Father Vaughan came to New York to assist in the consecration of St. Patrick's cathedral. He has been spending his leisure time in visits to New York's East Side tenement district.

After spending almost an entire night in the slums of your city, I can say that I enjoy the experience," he declared in summing up his observations. "I compared your slums with those of a vast city I know well, and I rejoiced. Here children were playing and dancing in the electric light and people sat on their porches happy and contented. Poles, Jews, Italians, Chinese and Japanese were there, all gay and lively."

"The children, with a slice of melon and a ray of sunshine, were richer than your millionaires, more human, more God-like. The aristocracy of New York dwells in its slums. Children about and sing and dance around burdies, they scamper away for sweetmeats; they share their treasures as they share their games."

"The millionaires of your Fifth avenue are not to be compared with these people; their children are not to be compared with these children. God would feel at home there."

"Your slums of New York are a paradise compared to the dark, gloomy alleys of London. I know London, I know the East End of London."

SEARCHING FOR SAILORS
Not One of 29 Reported
Drowned Has Been Picked Up

New York, Oct. 3.—Search was continued today for bodies of the United States sailors drowned Saturday evening when the cutter, in which they were returning to their ship, the New Hampshire, overturned. Up to 11 o'clock this morning not one of the twenty-nine reported drowned had been picked up. Sixteen other sailors are missing from the battleship and are believed to have overstayed their shore leave.

Captain Rodgers of the New Hampshire has received word from two of the sailors whose shore leave expired Saturday night and who were reported missing. These were T. C. Bonshall, ordinary seaman, and A. C. Diwanell, bugler. Bonshall sent a telegram to Captain Rodgers, dated Philadelphia, stating that he would report to the ship. Diwanell returned to the New Hampshire last night.

CALIFORNIA BOYS ARE REAL HEROES
San Francisco, Oct. 3.—Charles Graham, aged 15, tried to kill a mountain lion yesterday by hurling a hatchet at the beast. The blade clipped off the lion's ear and the enraged animal was crouching to spring upon the boy when his brother Edward, aged 17, who had witnessed the rash act of the younger lad, fired a considerable distance, sent a rifle bullet into the lion, killing it instantly.

Near Monterey yesterday a wildcat attacked Earl Norton, a boy, who was riding a bicycle. Jumping off his machine, the lad seized a fence picket, and, with a well-directed blow on the head, managed to stun the animal and dispatch it.

HOBBLE SHIRTS MUST NOW GO
New York, Oct. 3.—New York City is soon to become the center of the world's fashion, in the opinion of Mrs. Jesse Tobey, head of the millinery department of the Household Arts division of Columbia university, who has just returned from a summer spent in studying prospective styles abroad.

"The American women in Paris are more attractive and artistic in their attire than the French women," she says. "The women of Paris admit it, and this fact points clearly to the prophecy that New York will ultimately become the fashion center of the world."

"Woman is soon to wear the hat which makes her become her without regard to the foolish and unbecoming article which style dictates. The hobble skirts will have to go; they are dangerous to the life of the wearer. The freak hat also is about to pass into oblivion."

CATHOLIC PARADES IN

EMPLOYED IN MINING COAL

American Miners Produce More Coal Than the Foreigners

Washington, Oct. 3.—From figures on the world's coal supply in a recent British publication, the bureau of manufactures of the department of commerce and labor has compiled statistics showing that the United States, with 690,438 persons employed in mining coal in 1908, produced 126,520,000 tons of coal more than was produced by 966,254 persons similarly employed in the United Kingdom and that the production of coal in the United States amounted to 538 ton per person employed as against 271 ton produced per person in the United Kingdom.

Based upon reports of 1908 and 1909 the total production of coal in the United Kingdom, the United States, Russia, Sweden, Germany, Belgium, France, Spain, Austria, Hungary and Japan for 1909 was estimated at 958,674,000 tons with a total value at the pit of $1,854,223,892, and an average value per ton of $1.93. The number of persons employed in producing the coal was 3,172,110 and the average number of tons per person 294 produced.

In regard to the coal consumption of the several countries, the report says:

"The consumption of coal in the United States is more than twice as great as that in any other country and nearly equals the combined consumption of the United Kingdom, Germany, France and Belgium and is actually greater per capita than in the United Kingdom."

REBUILDING OF MESSINA

Corrupt Officials Are Responsible for Failure of the Plans

Rome, Oct. 3.—A firm of English construction has proposed to rebuild Messina, according to plans approved by the government, to clear the streets and negotiate a loan of $120,000,000 to the municipality at 3 1/2 per cent.

The reconstruction of the city would cost five years, according to a proposal referred to the municipal authorities who rejected it.

A representative of the English firm was summoned to Messina and had an interview with influential citizens who informed him that if the firm was willing to pay them, they would have the proposal accepted.

The agent asked what they wanted. One was willing to accept $20,000 and the other insisted on two per cent. The agent returned to Rome and asked the minister of public works whether it was the custom in Sicily to bribe officials.

THEY FOUGHT SEA BATTLE

Large Shark and Sea Lion Struggle to the Death

San Francisco, Oct. 3.—Chinese fishermen reported a battle between a huge sea lion and a twelve-foot shark off Bay Island yesterday that resulted, after two hours of fierce fighting, in the death of the former.

Becoming entangled in the fishermen's shrimp nets, the shark and the sea lion came together and began a duel. Though the sea lion, according to the Chinese, made a brave stand against its giant adversary and inflicted injuries that probably would have proved fatal, it was so weakened by loss of blood that it was unable to prevent the shark from attacking.

The end came when the shark's jaws closed on the sea lion's neck and held until the latter was dead.

At this point the fishermen ventured to invade the zone of battle and, after a struggle lasting half an hour, contrived to kill the victor.

POLITICS LIVELY IN MASSACHUSETTS

Boston, Oct. 2.—The principal game to be played in Massachusetts this week is that of politics. Democratic and Republican delegates will gather here Thursday to select standard-bearers for the November election, while congressional nominations will also be held in the fourteen districts. Governor Draper and four state office-holders will be renominated at the Republican convention. Attorney General Dana Malone retires to private practice, but there is opposition to his resignation. Attorney James M. Swift of Fall River for the sixth place on the state ticket. Harmony is expected to prevail.

That the Democratic convention, which meets at the same time in Faneuil hall will be as tranquil was generally conceded today, as there are three well known candidates for the gubernatorial nomination, and two or three others who are desirous of running for lieutenant governor.

The Massachusetts Democrats have never appeared so confident of victory as this year.
